

REPORTING HARASSMENT

cairwa.org/gethelp

WHAT HARASSMENT MIGHT LOOK LIKE

Harassment is any continued and regular unwanted actions against a person or persons. Harassment due to your religion and/or race and ethnicity might look like:

- Being called slurs or told to “go back to where you came from”
- Having your religious attire mocked or pulled at
- Being asked invasive questions about your religion or religious practices

HOW TO REPORT TO CAIR-WA

There are several ways to report harassment, bias, hate, or discrimination to CAIR Washington.

- Go to cairwa.org/gethelp and fill out the form
- Scan the QR code on this flyer
- Call (206) 624-0506 and leave a message

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER REPORTING

A member of the CAIR-WA legal team will reach out to you.

They might ask you questions about what happened and how you want to move forward.

Cases are kept confidential.

CAIR-WA always acts in accordance with the client's wishes and best interests.

You are in charge of what happens throughout the process. CAIR-WA can provide guidance, resources, and information. We can advocate on your behalf if you wish us to do so. We can serve as a liaison to law enforcement or institutions.

Matin, Ayoub, Najma, Jim, Imraan, and Shirin Aqa from CAIR-WA

Scan for CAIR-WA intake form

WHY TO REPORT

1. Islamophobic incidents are consistently underreported.
2. CAIR-WA can help.

Even if you do not want to take action, if you experienced harassment, CAIR-WA wants to know. Having a clearer picture of what's happening to our community helps CAIR-WA advocate for change.